

Why you should study...

A-Level Classics

at Christ the King College

- Students see much success in Classics year on year, with the 2024 results being in the top 10% the country.
- Students are supported by experienced specialist teachers.
- Classics intersects with History, Literature, Philosophy and Archaeology, offering a well rounded educational experience.
- Studying Classics provides an insight into the foundations of Western civilization fostering a deeper understanding of our modern society.
- Enables students to articulate responses to the materials studied, using a range of appropriate evidence to formulate coherent arguments with substantiated evidence based judgements.

Contact:
thomas.ferguson@christthekingcollege.co.uk
harry.hare@christthekingcollege.co.uk

Subject Requirements

You do NOT have to have taken Classical Civilisation GCSE to take it at A Level.

However, as this is an essay-based subject with a large literature content, a strong pass in GCSE English Language is important.

Course Structure

The World of the Hero (worth 40% of the total)

Culture and Arts (30%)

Beliefs and Ideas (30%).

