

Why you should study...

A - Level French

at Christ the King College

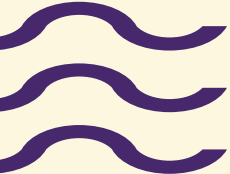

- Studying A level French offers global career opportunities as an official language of many international organisations.
- Being fluent can be a major asset in fields such as diplomacy, international relations, global business, translation, and tourism.
- This course gives students a competitive edge in the job Market as multilingual employees are highly sought after.
- The course is taught by a French subject specialist and examiner and has a 100% pass rate of A-B since the beginning of the specification.
- Our successful linguists have gone on to study at Oxbridge and Russell group universities.

Contact:
simone.robinson@christthekingcollege.co.uk

Those considering this course should have a Grade 5 - 6 or above at French GCSE, as well as a Grade 4 or above in English GCSE.

Knowledge of French society, culture, politics and literature is desirable.

Subject Requirements

Course Structure

Paper 1: Listening, reading and writing

Paper 2: Writing paper (literature / cine literature)

Paper 3: Speaking examination

